Competences and skills:

By working with the material, students enhance various competences and skills. As they are dealing with such a current topic as the coronavirus, students especially practise their research skills. They also train their reading comprehension competence by working with fictional as well as non-fictional texts. Furthermore, students develop their writing skills by writing summaries and producing creative texts. Students also engage in discussions and thus, improve their speaking skills. By working with several songs, their listening comprehension competence is trained.

Topic 1: Facts about the coronavirus

M1 Poems about pandemics

Philip Freneau:<sup>1</sup> Pestilence<sup>2</sup> (1793)

Hot, dry winds forever blowing,      Priests retreating from their pulpits<sup>4</sup> –
 Dead men to the grave-yards going:      Some in hot, and some in cold
     Constant hearses,<sup>3</sup>      In bad temper,
     Funeral verses;      Off their scamper,<sup>5</sup>
 5 Oh! what plagues – there is no knowing!      10 Leaving us – unnumbered culprits!<sup>6</sup>

Shalom Freedman: There Is So Much Else In Life Besides The Coronavirus (2020)

There is so much else in life besides the coronavirus
 Why do I give it so much time and thought?
     Because it keeps me inside
 5      Because it has changed everyone's life
     Because it threatens us
     Because new cases are still coming in large numbers
     Because unless we can stop it
 We cannot go back to do the ordinary things we sometimes love to do
     Still I don't want to think about so much anymore
 10      And if I had better powers of escape, I might be happier
     Let the coronavirus disappear as quickly as possible
     Let us all kept back
     To being fully alive.

Annotation

1 Philip Moris Freneau: 1752–1832; American poet, polemicist, sea captain and newspaper editor; has been dubbed “The Poet of the American Revolution”; this poem, however, is about the plague: specifically, the “pestilence” of yellow fever which kills 15,000 citizens of Philadelphia in 1793. – 2 pestilence: epidemic disease like the plague – 3 hearse: funeral carriage – 4 pulpit: place from which the priest usually speaks his sermon – 5 to scamper: to rush – 6 culprits: sinners

8. Most of Geoff Ryman's sentences are very short. Describe his style and explain why he chooses it for the opening of his novel.

Working with the video

9. In Nathaniel Hawthorne's novel The Scarlet Letter every woman who committed adultery had to wear a red letter "A" on her clothes for everyone to see.

- a) Watch the summary of the novel:

https://raabe.click/en\_um\_scarlet\_letter [last access: 11/09/2020].

Describe the function and effect of this form of branding a person.

- b) Discuss whether publicly marking infected or even recovered people offers a way of curing and fighting the coronavirus.

Working with the cartoon

10. Analyse the cartoon and its suggestions on how to control the coronavirus by keeping social distance.

Further activity

1. Write an email to a friend in another country in which you discuss the measures taken against the spread of the coronavirus in your country.

M7 Worksheet – Surveillance as a means of protection?

Working with the cartoon

1. Look at the ad promoting a tracking app. Describe the ad by summarising the story.
2. Explain the function of this cartoon.
3. Do an online research on how different countries work with tracking apps. You may use the following website:
https://raabe.click/en\_um\_corona\_tracking\_apps
[last access: 11/09/2020].
4. Make a list of pros and cons of tracking apps and surveillance in general. Then draw a line across the classroom and physically express your opinion by standing on one side of that line that is either the pro or the con side. Talk to a person on the other side to find out about their motives.

Reading comprehension

5. Read the short story The Perfect Match by Ken Liu:
https://raabe.click/en\_um\_perfect\_match
[last access: 11/09/2020].
Write a short summary of the plot.

Working with the text

6. The story is utopian. Nevertheless, some parts of the story would seem possible even today. Make a list of realistic elements embedded in that story.
7. Characterise Sai and Jimmy by writing down what you would say about them when introducing them to a friend.

Discussion

Get together in groups of six and discuss whether Sai should agree on working for Centillion. Use these role cards to start your discussion, but also add your personal opinion to come to a conclusion.

Topic 5: Viruses in science fiction and music

M11 Worksheet – Viruses in science fiction and music

Working with the texts

You can find a review of Stephen King's The Stand here:

https://raabe.click/en\_um\_the\_stand

[last access: 11/09/2020]

You can find two reviews on the film The Outbreak here:

https://raabe.click/en\_um\_the\_outbreak [last access: 11/09/2020]

(review 1 by rcs0411@yahoo.com, review 2 by Dennis O' Cain)

Work with the review on The Stand or Stephen King or the film reviews on The Outbreak. Split the class into two groups (Group 1: The Stand, Group 2: The Outbreak). In these groups, get together in pairs. Each pair should then work on these tasks.

1. Describe the plot and the setting of the story.
2. Elaborate on the role of the virus in the storyline.

3. Choose suitable songs/musics to accompany the scenes written about in the review. Then read the review to your class using these songs as background music. Give reasons why you have chosen the songs.
4. Discuss the effect of the music.

Working with "coronavirus songs"

The following songs were written or re-written during the coronavirus period. Use your mobile phone or the school tablet and headphones to listen to them.

Work on the contents and music with the help of the questions. Move from one station to the next. You will find background information at each station.

Creative activity

If you finish early, come up with lyrics for your own coronavirus song.
